Short summary for E-blast

School-based health centers across the country are adopting and reporting standardized performance measures as part of the National Quality Initiative. Join the momentum! In this webinar, School-Based Health Alliance experts will describe promising strategies, frequently asked questions, and case examples for adopting, reporting, and improving performance measures. Attendees will learn how to use the Alliance's new NQI Toolkits on documenting clinical quality, sustainability, classroom seat time saved, and clients' experience of care.
